

Do you shop online?

Click on our website before you shop to support Advanced Academics in Highlands County!

The Highlands Advanced Academics Parent Network has volunteered to raise the startup funds needed to bring the rigorous International Baccalaureate Diploma Programme to Highlands County, Florida. We would like to introduce a new and very simple way you can help us raise funds to support this highly regarded high school academic program.

We have teamed up with YellowBrickMall.com, an online shopping mall that donates a percentage of online sales back to us. You can help support Highlands County's advanced academic program by linking to and purchasing from merchants such as Amazon, Toys R Us, Lands End, E-Bay, Old Navy and Overstock.com. More than 750 national online merchants can be found on our page on the YellowBrickMall.com site:

You can also support the I.B. program by making your business and personal travel arrangements through our Yellow Brick Mall web page. Many online travel-related businesses participate in the Yellow Brick Mall program, including Travelocity, Holiday Inn, Avis Rent A Car, Carnival Cruise Lines and Priceline.com. just to name a few!
